v. Permit Issuance Information

The following steps outline the procedure to obtain New Hampshire Temporary Groundwater Discharge Permit:

1. New Hampshire Temporary Groundwater Discharge Permit application is completed and submitted to the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services, (Department).
2. The Department issues a Temporary Groundwater Discharge Permit, a temporary permit limited to one-time discharges of a short duration (less than four months). The Department establishes its required discharge limits and monitoring requirements in the Temporary Groundwater Discharge Permit. Analysis of treatment effluent and analysis of soil at the point of discharge shall be required.
3. Applicant may begin discharge after receiving written permit from the Department.
4. Any person or persons planning to discharge to surface waters must apply for an NPDES permit or a Temporary Surface Water Discharge permit with a NPDES exclusion. For information regarding NPDES permit application, contact the Department's Water Quality Permits and Compliance Bureau (603-271-3503) and EPA region I (617-565-3528). For the temporary discharges of treated water to a surface water of NH contact the Waste Management Division at 603-271-3644. (For drinking water well rehabilitation activities discharging to a surface water contact the Temporary Groundwater Discharge Permits Coordinator.)

vi. Certification

To the best of my knowledge, the data and information, which I have submitted to obtain the Temporary Groundwater Discharge Permit from the New Hampshire Department of Environmental Services, are true and correct.

I agree not to discharge to the groundwater of the State until I have received written permission from the Department of Environmental Services.
